The appointments were made by the Northeast Politburo.

2. The General Affairs Department, headed by HAN Wei-yang (韓維揚), is divided into:

- General Affairs Section headed by CH'EN Ching-wen (陳景文)
- Accounting Section headed by LI Ch'eng-hsing (李承熙)
- Administration Section under which are a Finance Sub-section and a Tax Sub-section.

The old (formerly under the Manchukuo regime) departments of Recording and Printing, Accounting and Social Affairs have been dissolved.

3. The personnel of the Municipal Government, exclusive of the Public Safety Bureau, numbers twenty-two; there are twenty-eight persons in the Public Safety Bureau.

4. During the early part of 1947 the Manchouli Municipal Government formed an armed workers self-defense corps. The Hulunbuir Autonomous Government dispersed this corps and destroyed the barracks where members had been living. LIU Fu-ch'u and WANG Chih-chien made a special trip to Hailar (119-44,49-13) to discuss this matter and the question of fishing rights on Talai Lake with officials of the Hulunbuir Government. However, Erkinbato, Chairman of the Hulunbuir Government refused to see them. Later WANG went to Harbin to secure assistance from the Northeast Administrative Committee but this group refused to intervene. As a result of all this, there is an unfriendly feeling between officials of the Manchouli Municipal Government and officials of the Hulunbuir Autonomous Government.
